

XM Radio is offering weather and traffic information as a service to listeners and a way of becoming financially viable so that satellite radio can become an alternate to over the air listening. Any attempt to use the government and its regulations to stop this opportunity should be ignored.

The constitution and right to free speech should prohibit lobbyists with an ulterior motive from gaining the ear of the FCC and other legislative bodies. Please do not let this happen!

Sincerely,

Norm Littleton

XM Satellite Radio Subscriber